

"Reunification: Building Permanent Peace in Korea"
Alumni House, UC Berkeley
October 10, 2008

8:30-9:00

Light refreshments

9:00-9:30

Welcoming remarks

Dean of International and Area Studies John Lie, Korea Policy Institute Executive Director Thomas Kim

9:30-10:30

Panel 1: The Historical Roots of U.S.-N.K. Conflict

Bruce Cumings, "War is a Stern Teacher"

Moderator: Ramsay Liem

10:30-12:15

Panel 2: U.S. Policy Approaches to a Rapidly Changing Korea

Gi-Wook Shin, "Summits, Shifts, and Reshifts in South Korea"

John Feffer, "New Landscapes in North Korea"

Philip Yun, "From the Agreed Framework to the Six-Party Talks"

Moderator: Seung Hye Suh

12:15-1:30

Lunch

1:30-3:15

Panel 3: Unification and its Challenges

Jae-Jung Suh, "Changing US-ROK Military Alliance"

Karin Lee, "Food Aid, Developmental Aid, and Technical Assistance to North Korea"

Martin Hart-Landsberg, "Contested Terrain: The Promise and Perils of Reunification"

Moderator: Christine Ahn

3:15-3:30

Break

3:30-4:30

Panel 4: Prospects for Peace

Selig Harrison, "Endgame: The US-South Korean Alliance and Korean Reunification"

Moderator: Thomas Kim

4:30-4:45

Closing Remarks

Hye-Jung Park

4:45-5:00

Announcements followed by wine reception